

Abstract of GB693646

693,646. Spring forks for motor-cycles. EARLES, E. R. G., [trading as ELMS METALS]. Dec. 5, 1951 [Jan. 25, 1951 ], No. 1906/51. Class 136 (iii) A motor-cycle front wheel fork comprises a main fork member a connected to the steering head d and pivotally attached at its lower end to a sub-fork member f, and a pair of telescopic shock absorbers g pivoted at their ends to the main and sub-fork members; the sub-fork carrying the front wheel axle and the main fork member a being curved or inclined rearwardly so that its lower end lies behind the front road wheel e.

693,646 COMPLETE SPECIFICATION

1 SHEET

This drawing is a reproduction of the Original on a reduced scale.

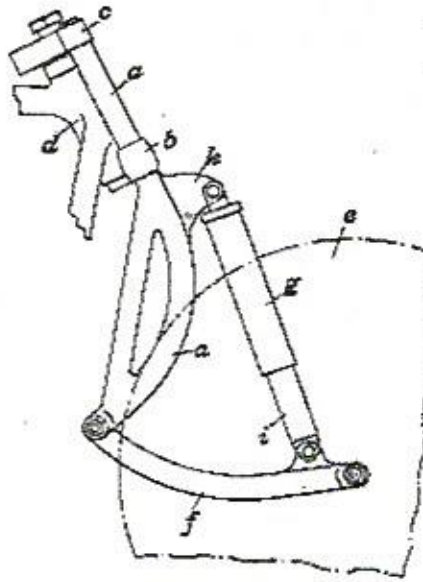

Fig. 1

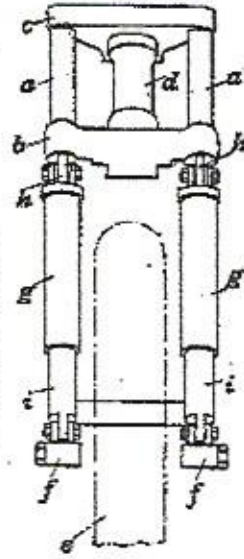

Fig. 2